Meeting Room General Rules of Use

Use of the meeting room in the Weedspport Free Library is primarily for programs conducted or sponsored by the library, and secondarily, for programs of established and recognized institutions, groups, and associations with educational, cultural or civic purposes. All meetings must be open to the public, but need not be public meetings.

Programs which are planned by the library take precedence over meetings of outside groups. The library reserves the right to preempt the use of meeting space.

As long as meetings do not conflict with one another, there is no objection to regular meetings of the same group; however, in fairness to the numerous groups of the community, reservations are taken not more than three (3) months in advance.

No admission fees or required donations may be charged.

The sponsor of a meeting or program may request a fee from participants only to the extent that such fee covers the cost of materials furnished to participants. Such charges should not be construed as an admission fee, and attendance may not be limited to those individuals who pay the fee. No portion of any fee shall accrue to the benefit of an organization or individual.

APPLICATION: An organization requesting the use of the meeting room for the first time must complete a meeting room application. An individual responsible for the changes or cancellations to the scheduled meeting date should communicate with the library staff as soon as possible.
